

NUNA MED 2007

Nuna Med 2007 will take place in Nuuk on September 8.-10. 2007. The conference language is Danish/Scandinavian but we invite poster presentations in English particularly from international projects with Greenlandic participation.

Although the first deadline for submission of abstracts was May 1st 2007, don't hesitate to contact nunamed@gh.gl if you wish to participate or contribute.

Nuna Med is a series of conferences about health, health care and health research in Greenland. Since 1991, more than 200 participants have gathered every 3rd year to present results and discuss common problems.
